1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-19, in the reply filed on 17 July 2006 is acknowledged.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bella.

See column 2 lines 25-45.

4. Claims 1 and 16 through 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Percy et al.

See column 3 line 18 through column 4 line 32 and column 6 lines 4-20.

5. Claims 1 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Offutt et al.

See column 3 line 30 through column 4 line 22.

6. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moyer et al.

See Figures 1 and 3 as well as column 1 lines 41-44.

7. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Cooke et al.

See Figures 1 and 2.

Art Unit: 3653

8. Claims 1, 9 through 11 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shin.

See Figures 4-6.

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 12 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shin in view of Offutt et al.

Shin as interpreted above in paragraph 8 teaches everything except plural snack foods.

Offutt et al teaches a vending machine dispensing a variety of items.

In view of the teachings of Offutt et al, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to dispense a plurality of different kinds of snack foods from the vending machine of Shin.

11. Claims 2 through 8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
